

Cutting Edge Newsletter

Click to go to our Home Page

Cutting Edge News Alert

Thursday, April 21, 2011

Key Events

DVD

I. Turkey continues to turn against the West and against her former ally, Israel, just as the prophecy of Ezekiel 38-39 foretold 2,500 years ago!

Turkey must turn against Israel and ally with Russia and Iran before the Russian-led invasion can occur. Turkey earnestly started this turn in 2005, as we detail in the DVD, "The Triumphant Return of Jesus Christ".

NNEWS ALERT: "US ally Turkey flirts with Mideast's 'bad boys'", MSNBC News, April 20, 2011

"The press for change spreading through the Middle East has inevitably put a focus on the lone democratic Muslim-majority country in the area: Turkey. Long a bastion of secular government, it has felt pressure to introduce democratic reforms as well as to confront the effects of a growing Islamic identity."

Under the leadership of Prime Minister Erdogan, Turkey has slowly moved away from the West and toward Islam. Listen to the Prime Minister describe himself.

"In September, Erdogan told the Wall Street Journal that 'as a religious Muslim I am the prime minister of the secular Turkish Republic and I am the defender of it'."

What this statement hides is the fact that religious Islamic leaders like PM Erdogan must carefully move Turkey into the Islamic camp in such gradual, "baby steps" that the secular generals do not intervene with a military coup -- as they have done in the past. Erdogan has proven himself adept at this task, and now he has a President who is equally religious, Abdullah Gül.

Even though Gul is President, Prime Minister Erdogan is the real power behind the throne and the one masterminding the very gradual move of Turkey into the Russian/Iranian orbit.

In 2007, we posted a Headline News article on this prophetic subject -- NEWS2198, entitled, "Western Pressure Has Now Forced Turkey Out of the Pro-American Orbit and Into the Russian - Iranian Orbit! Turkey is now aligning herself with Russia, just as Ezekiel 38-39 prophecy foretells."

We need to continue monitoring this situation because the Russian-led invasion of Israel is slowly coming into sharp focus. With Turkey aligning itself with Russia and Iran, all the nations foretold in Ezekiel 38 as marching with Russia against Israel are now in their proper place!

II. France, Great Britain and Italy now have troops on the ground inside Libya!

The World Is On Fire In The 'Non-Integrating Gap'

Map of Africa and Middle East

NEWS ALERT: "Warning of a 'new Vietnam' in Libya as British military advisers go in", Mail Online, April 20, 2011

"David Cameron was accused last night of risking a Vietnam-style quagmire in Libya by sending military advisers to help the country's rebels. The first official deployment of troops on the ground marks a significant escalation in the war and immediately invited charges of 'mission creep'."

What we see unfolding in Libya today is occurring according to the plan of the West before the first protest of Libyans against Gaddafi on February 15. Gaddafi's forces are not so strong that they could resist a concerted Western effort for very long, and their leadership knows it.

The Illuminati wants more from this conflict than just the overthrow of Col. Gaddafi. They want to set a precedent that Western forces have the right, and the will, to intervene with air and ground forces if they have to in order to overthrow the strongman dictator who is resisting the approaching regional government.

In this African Continent and Middle East, two regional governments are forming, as this map below clearly illustrates:

1. Regional Government #7 - known as "Northern Africa and the Middle East"

2. Regional Government #8 - known as "Tropical Africa"

So far, the West has achieved the overthrow of the strongman governments in Tunisia, Egypt, Lebanon and the Ivory Coast.

However, many more governments led by strongmen need to fall. The West has quite a way to go yet, so they need to provide a strong catalyst to encourage the other dictators within the region to leave -- when they are told to leave.

Let us review the action within the region to see how the pressure against other dictators is building.

Supernation #7 Forming

NEWS ALERT: "President's thugs target crowds as Yemen erupts", The Scotsman, 21 April 2011

"Protesters in the Red Sea port city of Hodeida were reportedly demanding the resignation of long-time president Ali Abdullah Saleh when they were attacked by thugs hired by the ruling party ... The two months of anti- government turmoil is threatening to spiral out of control in Yemen as nearly daily protests across the country are being violently suppressed by security forces ... The Gulf Co-operation Council, comprising the six other oil-rich nations on the Arabian Peninsula, has attempted to mediate between the Yemeni government and opposition, but its efforts have so far shown little success."

"Its proposal calls for Mr Saleh to step down, but offers him immunity from prosecution."

President Saleh has offered to resign his office at the end of the year, but protestors are demanding he resign now.

NEWS ALERT: "Bahrain king puts \$42bn in Swiss bank", Press TV, April 21, 2011

"The king of Bahrain has transferred billions of dollars to some Swiss bank accounts amid mounting anti-government protests in the Middle Eastern country ... This is 'an indication of their apprehension about their (the ruling family's) ultimate fate', he further explained.

" 'The truth of the matter is that these country-selling regimes are the creations of the US ... [and it is the] political power of the imperialism that sustains these regimes', Schoenman argued."

"Bahrain is home to the US Navy Fifth Fleet. "

When the king begins to move massive amounts of money to an overseas bank account, that is a strong indication he plans to vacate office and flee really soon. Should that happen, Saudi Arabia and the other members of the Gulf Coast Council who intervened with troops in support of the king will really be comprised, to the point where protests may erupt in their countries.

NEWS ALERT: "'Bloodbath' would follow overthrow of Assad in Syria ", The Jerusalem Post, 21 April 2011

"The overthrow of Syrian dictator Basher Assad is not yet imminent, but should it occur, a bloodbath between Syria's various sects would likely follow ... 'I think there would be a bloodbath if Assad falls. The Iraqi situation is relevant', said Eyal Zisser, a professor of Middle Eastern and African History at Tel Aviv University ... Zisser, who formerly headed the university's Moshe Dayan Center Middle East think tank added, 'We're not there yet. The protests are however getting bigger, and more and more forces are joining in. They are spreading to other parts of the country'."

Professor Zisser is a member of the Global Elite, so his remarks reflect the real plan, which is to ultimately overthrow President Assad, replacing him with someone who will not resist surrendering national sovereignty and joining Regional Government #7.

Syria and Israel have a date with prophetic destiny.

"The burden of Damascus. Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it shall be a ruinous heap." (Isaiah 17:1)

Supernation #8 Forming

NEWS ALERT: "In-Fighting among pro-Ouattara forces spreads in Ivory Coast", The Star, April 21, 2011

"Ivory Coast's new army turned its guns on a former ally who helped install the democratically elected president but failed on Thursday to defeat his forces who are dug into a neighborhood of Abidjan ... Infighting among forces who recognize President Alassane Ouattara also erupted Wednesday in the southwestern cocoa port of San Pedro."

"Gbagbo lost November elections but refused to accept defeat. He is currently under arrest and faces possible trials."

This violence amongst the soldiers who ousted long-time dictator Laurent Gbagbo is simply the last gasp of the conflict Normalcy is said to be returning to the Ivory Coast.

NEWS ALERT: "Burkina crisis 'not yet out of control': African Union", Ahram Online News, 20 Apr 2011

"President of African Union commission Jean Ping assures situation still controlled after weeks of riots by soldiers and civilians against regime ... 'For the moment, it seems that the situation is not yet out of control, so we are watching and monitoring the situation there closely with the Burkina Faso authorities', said Jean Ping, president of the commission of the African Union, who was here for talks with US officials."

"The West African country has been roiled by a series of unprecedented demonstrations over the past two months, including a chaotic army mutiny and student riots against police that left several people dead."

NEWS ALERT: "South Sudan violence cast shadow over new nation", Middle East Online, 21 April 2011

"A tangle of mounting military tensions and political disputes poses a new threat to Sudan as Africa's biggest nation heads toward division in less than three months, the UN said Wednesday. The southern Sudan government, which is to formally declare independence on July 9, faces challenges from insurgents and militias in its own territory, a top UN official warned the Security Council. A troop buildup around the contested Abyei region on the frontier between the north and south has heightened military tensions between the two sides."

Northern Sudan has apparently not gotten the message that the United Nations is protecting the new government of South Sudan. Before the election by which the South separated from the North weakened the northern dictatorship greatly. Of course, the "Pentagon's New Map Strategy" fully intends to weaken and eventually overthrow all resistant dictators; therefore South Sudan is not the problem here, North Sudan is the problem.

Eventually, North Sudan will suffer "Regime Change". We just have to wait to see the planned outcome unfold in our Daily News.

NEWS ALERT: "Nigeria vote to proceed despite riots", Al-jazeera News, 21 Apr 2011

"Nigeria's president says next week's elections for governor will go ahead as planned, despite deadly riots in the north that have left at least 200 people dead. Goodluck Jonathan said on Thursday that order is being restored to the country ahead of next Tuesday's gubernatorial polls."

Violence will continue to destabilize this entire region until every leader resistant to joining the Regional Government is overthrown and replaced by a very compliant ruler. Watch this unfolding prophecy unfold in our Daily News. We have posted a Headline News article which explains fully what is occurring here and why. Please take a few moments to read NEWS2436, entitled, "Flames of War Now Engulfing The African Nations Comprising Prophetic Supernations #7 and #8".

III. "Big Brother" capability has now taken over cell phones!

NEWS ALERT: "iPhones secretly track their users' locations", CNN News, April 21, 2011

"Apple devices appear to be tracking their owners' locations and storing data about people's whereabouts without their knowledge ... The unauthorized surveillance started in June 2010, when the latest version of Apple's mobile operating system was released, according to two researchers who say they discovered a hidden tracking file and posted it out of concern for users."

"Apple has not responded to the allegations."

Has Apple succumbed to government pressure by building a "back door" in their programming which will allow officials to track anyone using an iPhone? The government is intent upon eventually tracking every single person in this world as events propel us toward the coming World Dictatorship.

