Key Events

DVD

I. The Illuminati was extremely active this year during Beltaine (April 30 - May 1), the second-most sacred day in the annual Satanic calendar!

Human sacrifice is absolutely essential during Beltaine.

1) President Obama announced Sunday that he personally ordered the attack which "killed" Osama bin Laden.

NEWS BRIEF: "Obama announces Osama bin Laden killed by U.S.", L.A. Times, May 1, 2011

"Osama bin Laden, the world's most wanted terrorist, was killed in Pakistan as the result of a U.S. military operation, President Obama announced to the nation Sunday night ... The announcement by Obama from the East Room of the White House came eight years to the day after President Bush announced the end of major combat operations in Iraq, the so-called 'Mission Accomplished' speech from the aircraft carrier USS Abraham Lincoln."

This next news story confirms that the operation occurred on Sunday, the second day of Beltaine.

NEWS BRIEF: "U.S. kills Osama bin Laden", L.A. Times, May 2, 2011

"A U.S. special forces team killed Osama bin Laden at a compound inside Pakistan and recovered his body, bringing a close to the world's highest-profile manhunt after a decade-long search, President Obama announced to the world Sunday night ... On Sunday, the special forces launched their raid, which lasted approximately 40 minutes, the senior official said. After what the president described as a firefight, they killed Bin Laden."

2) NATO forces attacked a command-and-control bunker in Tripoli Saturday and killed Gaddafi's youngest son and three of his grandchildren.

Gaddafi himself was not killed.

NEWS BRIEF: "Gaddafi has survived Nato strikes, Libya says", Gulf News, May 2, 2011

"Libyan leader Muammar Gaddafi survived a Nato air strike on a Tripoli house that killed his youngest son Saif Al Arab and three young grandchildren, a government spokesman said Sunday. Libyan officials took journalists to the house, which had been hit by at least three missiles. The roof had completely caved in at places, leaving mangled rods of steel hanging down among splintered chunks of concrete."

In last week's News Alert, we reported that NATO had determined to target Gaddafi for assassination. On Saturday, precise missiles completely shattered the bunker in which Gaddafi's family was staying. NATO claimed that they thought the bunker was military in nature, and so ordered the attack.

3) Former Pope John Paul II was beatified Sunday, May 1.

NEWS BRIEF: "Pope John Paul II's beatification moves him closer to sainthood", L.A. Times, May 1, 2011

"Before hundreds of thousands of the Roman Catholic faithful, the late Pope John Paul II was beatified Sunday in a ceremony that declared him 'blessed' and put the Polish pontiff one step closer to sainthood. A packed St. Peter's Square erupted in applause when the current pope, Benedict XVI, recited the words that elevated his predecessor, whose massive portrait was then unveiled over the doorway of the basilica."

This next segment reveals the true pagan nature of Catholicism: the veneration of relics.

"The French nun whose healing from Parkinson's disease was deemed a miracle performed by John Paul presented Benedict with a reliquary containing a vial of the late pope's blood, which will become an object of veneration."

We have long reported that Pope John Paul II uniquely served as the "Sun God" during his long reign. Therefore, it is fitting that he should have been beatified on May 1, the ultimate Sun God worship day on the Satanic calendar.

II. President Obama dramatically propelled his re-election bid by announcing that he personally ordered the killing of Osama bin Laden.

Dropping in the polls and being beset by a sluggish economy, the President pulled the ultimate winning card -- the killing of Osama bin Laden!

NEWS BRIEF: "Across New York City, joy that 'Obama got Osama'", May 2, 2011

"Nearly 10 years of pent-up emotion broke like a wave across New York City after news came late Sunday that al-Qaida leader Osama bin Laden had been killed in an American attack in Pakistan. At Ground Zero, where the twin towers of the World Trade Center fell on Sept. 11, 2001, people were screaming, reciting the Pledge of Allegiance, singing 'America the Beautiful' and 'The Star Spangled Banner', and waving big flags. Others chanted 'Obama got Osama' in a scene overflowing with patriotism and happiness after President Barack Obama announced the death of the man who planned the terror attacks that scarred this city."

This chant has such a nice ring to it that the Democrats would do well to make it a campaign slogan during Obama's re-election of 2012! "Obama got Osama" will ring the old patriotism fires in the hearts of enough Americans that the President could very well climb atop the polls once again.

The news that President Obama had personally ordered the hit on Osama accomplishes three very significant election goals:

- 1) To show the American electorate that he possessed personal courage;
- 2) To demonstrate that he was not a Muslim. This charge had bedeviled Barack Obama since the early days of the 2008 election and was beginning to surface again.
- 3) Democrat President Obama is seen as finishing the fight which Republican President Bush had begun. In fact, Bush was seen as a failure for never having captured Osama bin Laden; that victor's mantle now rests around Obama's neck.

In this next article, note two words: "transcendent moment"

NEWS BRIEF: "With bin Laden's Death, a Triumph for Obama", National Journal, May 2, 2011

"The death of Osama bin Laden is a transcendent moment for the country and a pivotal one for President Obama."

Barack Obama and the Democrat Party can only hope that this "killing" of Osama bin Laden will prove to be a "transcendent moment" in his upcoming campaign!

III. Discerning Americans will have real trouble believing this story that American forces have just now killed Osama bin Laden!

Osama has been reportedly dead for a number of years!

NEWS BRIEF: "Confirming Cutting Edge teaching since October, 2001, a former CIA operative has confirmed that Osama bin Laden has been dead for years!", Cutting Edge Newsletter, October 8, 2008, Paragraph 'V'.

"An important news item that flew under the radar for the most part last week was the assertion from former CIA operative turned whistleblower Robert Baer that Osama Bin Laden is long dead. The hugely respected intelligence & foreign policy expert told Terry Gross, host of National Public Radio show Fresh Air, 'Of course he is dead'..."

"There is voluminous evidence to suggest Bin Laden is long dead. According to French newspaper Le Figaro, Bin Laden was on a kidney dialysis machine after he had one shipped to his base in Kandahar Afghanistan in 2000, and when the CIA personally visited him in a Dubai hospital. Other accounts suggest he was also suffering from Hepatitis C at the time and had only two years left to live."

Why has the CIA continually perpetuated the lie that Osama bin Laden was still alive?

The Illuminati had decided that Osama was to be the "straw man" that they would build up so they can fight their continuous "War On Terror", it would be most convenient if Osama was never captured."

But, now, the time had evidently come to bring this convenient charade to an end. A Democrat President was in deepening political trouble so the chapter on Osama bin Laden was brought to a conclusion.

If Osama bin Laden was truly killed this weekend, the Americans would be parading his body all over the world, allowing every doubter the opportunity to see his body and to read scientific evidence proving bin Laden was really killed this weekend. Is this what happened?

No, the Americans conveniently immediately buried Osama in the sea!

NEWS BRIEF: "Osama bin Laden buried at sea", L.A. Times, May 2, 2011

"WASHINGTON—

A U.S. official says Al Qaeda leader Osama bin Laden has been buried at sea.

After Bin Laden was killed in a raid by U.S. forces in Pakistan, senior administration officials said the body would be handled according to Islamic practice and tradition. That practice calls for the body to be buried within 24 hours, the official said. Finding a country willing to accept the remains of the world's most wanted terrorist would have been difficult, the official said."

"So the U.S. decided to bury him at sea."

Whenever a government conveniently disposes of the evidence before it can be examined by independent experts, I instantly conclude that the government has been lying and that its officials know the evidence will reveal the enormity of their lie.

Therefore, I believe this entire charade was carried out by the U.S. Government, probably to improve President Obama's standing in the polls and to persuade many that the President cannot be a Muslim after all.
