I. Palestinian leadership may be ready to fulfill major prophecy this September!

If a Palestinian State is unilaterally declared, Isaiah 34:12 is fulfilled, setting up Obadiah 15-18 and Psalm 83 and the rest of Isaiah 34 to be literally fulfilled.

NEWS BRIEF: "PA to Unilaterally Set Borders in September", Israel National News, July 25, 2011

"Even as the Palestinian Authority warns Israel not to revoke the Oslo Accords it is planning to unilaterally set its own borders in September ... The borders, according to a senior PA official, will be drawn by the PA and Arab states following the 'completion' of its statehood bid at the United Nations."

For years, we have been watching the prophecy of Isaiah 34:12 as a key indicator as to how close the beginning of the prophesied annihilation of the modern-day Palestinian might be. What does this prophecy state?

"They shall call its nobles to proclaim the kingdom, but nothing shall be there, and all its princes shall be no more." (Isaiah 34:12; Parallel Bible, KJV/Amplified Bible Commentary)

This prophecy contains three parts:

- 1) The Palestinian leadership announces a "kingdom", a nation;
- 2) Nothing whatsoever comes from this empty announcement. No nation is actually ever formed;
- 3) The Palestinian leadership who announced the empty nation is suddenly removed from power, possibly killed.

This empty announcement of a Palestinian State thus probably sets in motion the final "Ancient War of Hatred" between Palestinians and Israel thus dragging Lebanon, Syria, Jordan and Egypt into the fatal conflagration.

The prophecies explained in "Isralestine" are then fulfilled. These are exciting times in which to be alive, don't you think?

Returning to our featured news story, what is prompting Palestinian President Abbas to take this most unusual step of announcing Statehood in the face of determined Israeli opposition?

"Bassam Al Salehi, the Secretary General of the Palestinian People's Party, told reporters the leadership has lost faith in peace talks which is why they are approaching the matter through the UN. ... 'So far we have secured the approval of about 120 states from around the world to endorse an independent Palestinian state on the 1967 borderline," he added.

" 'We will present Israel as an occupation force at the UN. We cannot attach the fate of an independent Palestinian state to the will of the Israelis', he said."

At this point, we can see why an announcement by the UN General Assembly supporting a Palestinian State will be worthless and empty.

"But the PA initiative faces a likely US security council veto at the UN, which would render any support it receives in the General Assembly moot."

We shall have to watch this development carefully, for Israel is the Biblical key to determining how close the world is to the spark of all-out war which start World War III, the final "Birth Pangs" producing Antichrist!

II. Mitt Romney is revealed as the kind of Liberal Republican which Conservatives have long loved to hate!

Genuine Christians are forbidden to support him because he is a Mormon!

NEWS BRIEF: "Mitt Romney: The Establishment's Man and Friend to Liberal Causes", The New American, July 25, 2011

"Mitt Romney finished first in an Ohio straw poll last Friday of potential Republican presidential nominees. Romney garnered 25 percent of the votes with Tim Pawlenty coming in a distant second with 16 percent ... The Ohio straw poll results were more a reflection of how GOP insiders viewed the candidates as opposed to the candidates' organizational strength or popularity ... There is little doubt that the GOP establishment is pleased with the former Massachusetts Governor's performance, as it is being made increasingly clear through their mainstream media outlets that he is their man. Mouthpieces of the party declare him so regularly."

Why is this news so special?

"Given the slate of contenders vying for the Republican presidential nomination in 2012, it is curious that the powers that be in that party would have already tied their hopes to one man so far in advance of the primary elections."

We are a long way from the Presidential nominations of next year, so it is uniquely different that Republican insider powers are lining up so quickly behind Romney. However, when Romney was running his milk toast campaign of 2008, and certainly when he dropped out, I felt then that his effort was aimed at solidifying his run at the Presidency in 2012.

Events so far seem to be bearing out this belief. Republican powers are certainly boldly declaring their preference for Mormon Mitt Romney for President. Since polls are controlled by the state and national leaders of each party, they can build a candidate up to the point where a majority of citizens come to the conclusion that they need to vote for the man whom the professionals want.

In this case, for 2012, that man is Mitt Romney.

III. President Obama pulls a clever trick out his handbag to advance the cause of the North American Union!

NEWS BRIEF: "Dream Act: Obama passes amnesty by executive order", Tea Party Tribune, June 23, 2011

"Last Friday, with no fanfare, no press coverage, and with every effort made to hide his actions from the American people, President Obama enacted the DREAM Act by executive order. Opposed by a majority of the American people and twice defeated in Congress, the DREAM Act grants amnesty to any illegal alien residing in the United States if s/he agrees to enlist in the U.S. military or enter college."

For two decades, most Conservatives have agonized over the thorny question as to why America's border and immigration policies are not enforced. During the Presidencies of Bill Clinton, George W. Bush and Barack Obama, Conservatives have demanded answers to this question, only to be thrust aside by administration officials.

We submit that the past three Administrations have been enforcing immigration and border policies; the only reason Conservatives are confused is that the true policy is far different than what Conservatives think it is.

Conservatives believe that the immigration policies which are on the books to regulate the borders of Mexico are the policies which should be enforced. Certainly, these are the official laws. However, Administrations since Bill Clinton have secretly ignored these official laws because they are just as secretly pursuing a far different agenda.

The REAL agenda is to eliminate the current borders of Mexico / United States and of Canada / United States so that the North American Union can be established!

Once you realize that this is the real goal of Clinton/Bush/Obama, then the immigration and border policies of the past 19 years makes sense! Therefore, when President Obama shocked Conservatives with his "Dream Act" Executive Order, he was logically pursuing the plan for a North American Union.

Since the North American Union is Nation #1 in the Club of Rome Plan, this is the agenda which shall be established since it fulfills key Bible Prophecy (Daniel 7:7-8)

Now you know the truth behind this story.

"Giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge, etc."—2 Peter 1:5, 6.

IF thou wouldest enjoy the eminent grace of the full assurance of faith, under the blessed Spirit's influence, and assistance, do what the Scripture tells thee, "Give diligence." Take care that thy faith is of the right kind—that it is not a mere belief of doctrine, but a simple faith, depending on Christ, and on Christ alone. Give diligent heed to thy courage. Plead with God that He would give thee the face of a lion, that thou mayest, with a consciousness of right, go on boldly. Study well the Scriptures, and get knowledge; for a knowledge of doctrine will tend very much to confirm faith. Try to understand God's Word; let it dwell in thy heart richly.

When thou hast done this, "Add to thy knowledge temperance." Take heed to thy body: be temperate without. Take heed to thy soul: be temperate within. Get temperance of lip, life, heart, and thought. Add to this, by God's Holy Spirit, patience; ask Him to give thee that patience which endureth affliction, which, when it is tried, shall come forth as gold. Array yourself with patience, that you may not murmur nor be depressed in your afflictions. When that grace is won look to godliness. Godliness is something more than religion. Make God's glory your object in life; live in His sight; dwell close to Him; seek for fellowship with Him; and thou hast "godliness"; and to that add brotherly love. Have a love to all the saints: and add to that a charity, which openeth its arms to all men, and loves their souls. When you are adorned with these jewels, and just in proportion as you practise these heavenly virtues, will you come to know by clearest evidence "your calling and election." "Give diligence," if you would get assurance, for lukewarmness and doubting very naturally go hand in hand.
